Dear Friends of Shorthorn Cattle:

A dispersion sale for the owner of a herd of cattle is never a pleasant affair. He sees many years of hard work, long hours of careful planning and midnight oil-burning in studying how he can do a better job of proper mating to produce better stock, all dissipated in a few hours.

This dispersion is especially difficult for me because I have been very active in Shorthorn affairs since I was a child. I learned then how to carry a feed bucket and how to forego a warm bed until all the calves had a good dry bed themselves.

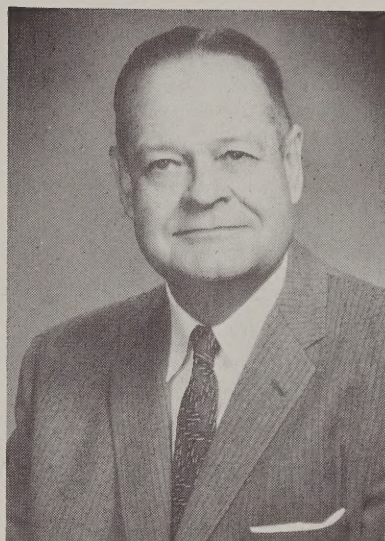

Another disappointment for me will be going to the fairs and not seeing Westward Way garner the blue ribbons and championships which have been the measuring stick of our progress and success. Fortunately we will still have our blue ribbons and championship trophies which are so numerous the walls of one room will not accommodate them all.

This is to be a complete dispersion — not a thing will be hidden behind the barn. The herd was culled recently and we believe it is in top productive condition. The reason for this sale is that I want to relax a bit and relieve myself of as much pressure as possible.

However, Westward Way will not be lost to the Shorthorn fraternity. We will start on a steer feeding program in 1965 and we still expect to remain active in Shorthorn affairs and to socialize with our friends on every possible occasion as we have in the past.

We know we will be parting with treasured bulls and females but our consolation is that they will remain in other good herds and that pedigrees will contain the name of Westward Way for decades.

On behalf of my wife, Verena; my daughter, Diane; and her husband, Larry Barkley, I invite you to this sale where more champions, more sired by champions, more All-Americans, more females bred to champions and more potential champions will sell than in any other complete dispersion. I hope you will honor us with your presence.

M. L. "MAC" MAGEE

Most sincerely,

M. L. "Mac" Magee

Some of the great young open heifers selling.

A Word from Harold Woody

In every dispersion people often feel that there is friction between owner and manager, a money problem or something that is unpleasant and not divulged.

None of these conditions exist at Wayward Way. Mac and I are the best of friends and have always enjoyed a very pleasant relationship. I know that this same warm feeling of friendship will always exist. I am not leaving Westward Way. I will remain here as general manager of a large steer feeding operation.

The cattle in this sale will be offered in just pasture condition. They have not been pampered and I am confident that they will do well for the new owners.

Everyone knows the show record of Westward Way cattle. It is written in the record book and I have been most happy to be at the halter to see Westward Way achieve the number one position at the Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska State Fairs.

My wife, Bernice, and I look forward to welcoming you to this sale. We hope you will come and like the cattle as much as we have.

Yours truly,

HAROLD WOODY

LYNNWOOD COPYRIGHT x—Winner of many championships including being International reserve grand champion in 1959. He was senior champion at Denver in 1960 in mixed competition. His dam is a great Cherry Hill Rosewood that was also the dam of Lynnwood Mainline x that did such a great job for Richwood Farms, Clayton, Ind. No Polled Shorthorn sire in the last three years has produced more champions than Copyright, many of these in mixed competition. He sired six All-American nominees in 1963 alone. Further, Lynnwood Copyright x has been a 100 per cent dehorner and is by a 100 per cent dehorning bull. This sale affords an unusual buying opportunity since every daughter of his marked for herd replacement will be sold.

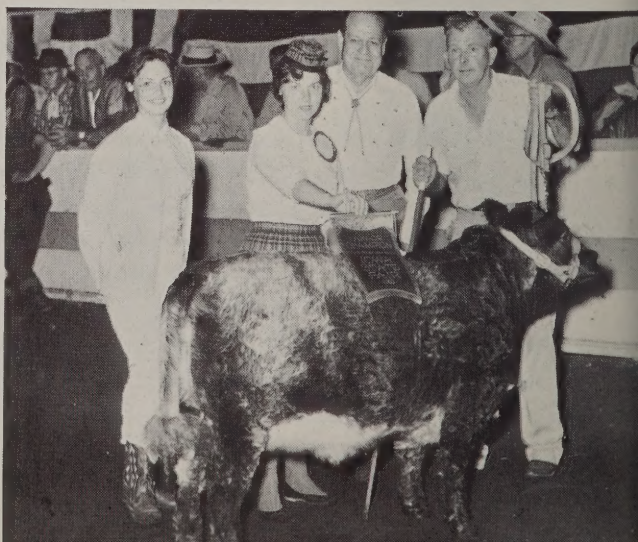

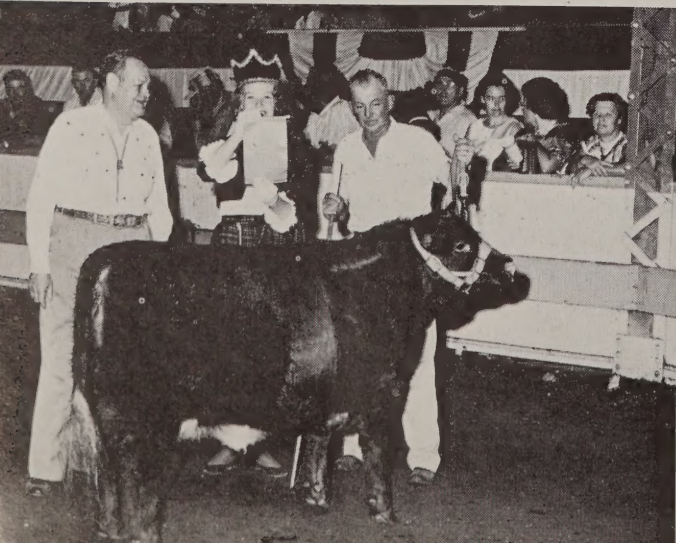

Westward Way Copyright 22nd x, International reserve junior champion.

Look at the Westward Way Record! —

Experienced breeders know that superior conformation alone in an individual animal is not enough. That superiority must be backed by proved performance. This Westward Way has done by dominating major Polled Shorthorn shows with a completeness seldom equalled. These pages give only a brief resume of a single year's winnings. Certainly this is proof of their acceptance by outstanding judges in the toughest competition in the nation.

ACADIA NAPOLEON 4th x—He was the first-prize junior calf at the International in 1958 and is the sire of a lot of top calves including the top Polled Shorthorn bull of the 1961 International sale and a daughter that sold in the 1961 Acadia sale for $1,950. Although he is dead now, his stamp was left on the herd and many of his daughters sell. Most of the top-selling females in the June Westward Way sale were by him and one later went on to be reserve senior champion at the 1964 Ohio Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn Futurity after being reserve junior champion at the 1963 Iowa State Fair in mixed competition and winning several other firsts and championships.

WESTWARD WAY COPYRIGHT 22nd x—The 1963 International reserve junior champion bull, he was slated to follow his illustrious sire at Westward Way. His death late this summer was a great blow to us and our consolation is that he had been used heavily in the herd and that his first calves on the ground now confirm our high opinion of him. He was one of the best-headed Polled Shorthorn bulls we have ever seen and was correct in every way. His dam is by a grandson of Naemoor Marshal and the granddam is by the $9,000 Edellyn Royal Leader 9th. This Lavender family has produced many top cattle and a host of champions.

Lynnwood Allegiance x in yearling form. This great son of Lynnwood Bolster x was selected to follow Lynnwood Copyright x. See the facing page for more of the exciting story of Lynnwood Allegiance x and his illustrious sire, Lynnwood Bolster x.

LYNNWOOD ALLEGIANCE x—To maintain all the good qualities of Lynnwood Copyright x after he was lost last spring, we selected Lynnwood Allegiance x as the best Polled Shorthorn bull available in the country. He is by Lynnwood Bolster x, senior champion in mixed competition at Denver and Ft. Worth in 1961 and the sire of the champions and winning groups at the 1964 Polled Shorthorn Congress. His dam was grand champion at Indiana and is considered by many to be the best brood cow in the Lynnwood herd. Allegiance is a big bull weighing nearly 1,900 pounds in pasture flesh after working hard all summer. A little extra feed would easily make him a ton bull. He has tremendous bone and is very deep, thick and well-coupled. His feet and legs are near perfect. Allegiance was in service at Lynnwood Farm where he has left outstanding calves including the first-prize junior heifer calf at the Indiana State Fair in September. More than 100 capsules of frozen semen go with the bull to his new owner.

LYNNWOOD BOLSTER x

The Great Sire of Lynnwood Allegiance x

Lynnwood Bolster x, the sire of Lynnwood Allegiance x, is proving to be as great a breeding bull as he was a show bull. Topping off a host of other winnings, he was reserve grand champion at the National Western in mixed competition. Now his calves are doing the same thing. One of his first sons was grand champion of the 1964 Polled Congress where Bolster also sired the best pair of bulls and the winning get-of-sire.

Continuing the same great tradition, one of the first daughters by Lynnwood Allegiance x was first-prize junior calf for Lynnwood at the 1964 Indiana State Fair.

S V's Bolster 13th x, this half brother to Lynnwood Allegiance x was grand champion at the 1964 Polled Congress.

First-prize get-of-sire at the 1964 Polled Congress was this group by Lynnwood Bolster x. He also sired Lynnwood Allegiance x.

The Westward Way herd of Polled Shorthorn cattle have had a remarkable record from a health standpoint. Brucellosis testing and vaccination have been practiced according to Illinois state health regulations. Tuberculosis testing has been done on a yearly basis and with no reactors. All animals have been Leptospirosis vaccinated at breeding age and there have been no sterility problems of any consequence.

Sincerely yours,

Westward Way — beautiful, well-kept, practical.

FROM THE SALE MANAGER —

It has been my privilege to know Mac Magee and his fine family for nearly 20 years. None have been more sincere in trying to develop top Shorthorns and later Polled Shorthorns. Mac Magee grew up with Shorthorns on a family farm in the Midwest. For the last 25 years he has been an active breeder with only a one-year interruption when the herd was moved. In that time he has selected a strong foundation. Until the first Westward Way Polled Shorthorn Sale in June, no Polled Shorthorn females had left the herd. Those that met the Westward Way standards stayed. The rest went to slaughter.

From a strong Shorthorn foundation Mac decided to develop one of the world's best herds of Polled Shorthorns. His selection of bulls has been fortunate. Bulls like the 100 per cent dehorning Lynnwood Copyright x, the International reserve grand champion, have put Westward Way in a front-ranked position among polled herds. The acceptance of the Westward Way Polled Shorthorns in the showring proves the success of the breeding program.

Now the herd is to be dispersed. This is one of the rare opportunities to buy the top producers—Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn—that have contributed to the Westward Way success. Only in a dispersion would they ever leave Westward Way.

Plan now to be at the sale November 16 in Bloomington.

Don Longley

"My advice to anyone wishing to get ahead in the breeding of livestock is to attend every dispersion of a famous herd that is held. Only there can you buy the truly outstanding producers that have contributed to the other man's success."
